LOWNDESVILLE

Happenings of a Week In and About the Seven-Hilled City—Personals.

Lowndesville, August 22, 1914.

Mr. J. Bruce Mosely with headquarters in Savannah, Ga., came in today was a week ago and was here till Monday.

Dr. Jno. G. Clinkscapes of Spartanburg, candidate as all know for Governor of this State, came in last Saturday evening and at six p. m. in the high school building addressed a fairly good crowd of our voters. Everything passed off very quietly, and he was listened to very attentively.

The county campaigners came here Tuesday, and one thing connected therewith was that those who have before usually prepared for such an occasion failed to do anything in the matter. The two candidates for State senate spoke to their hearers from the rostrum in the high school building. When it became so hot inside all adjourned to the outside in front of the building in the shade where the Legislative candidates brought before the people their peculiar fitness for the position sought. It was a quiet meeting with one or two minor disturbances, which looked for the moment as if something might break loose, but the ropes held, and things eased off.

Mr. T. J. Baskin of all about, was in this place Wednesday. He is somewhat like one we once read of. He has no regular settled place "where to lay his head," but being the same old Tom he has no difficulty in finding a place.

Fruits both large and small have been in abundance this year in this section, and our good ladies have utilized them to the fullest in canning, preserving, jellifying, etc. This crop to date has been far ahead of all other crops in this community.

Mr. Rob Speer whose home is in Atlanta, is visiting relatives here.

Miss Annie Wilson a native of this place but now of Atlanta, is visiting relatives here.

Our old time friend McLarry Gantt of Mississippi spent a day or two here the first of the week. He was born and reared in this place, and just before reaching his majority went to Athens, Ga., where he remained till after the war. He then came back to this State, was in Spartanburg for several years, and then came to his present home. He had not been here for about fifty years, and when here this week met but few of his friends of long ago.

Mr. L. E. Moorehead of Atlanta spent several days here, his old home, with relatives and friends.

The many friends of Miss Camille Smith, bride soon to be, gave a linen shower to her Thursday at the home of Mr. W. M. Speer.

Prof. J. B. Kay in an auto with Master Austin as driver accompanied by Mrs. W. W. Thompson, Mrs. E. F.

Latimer and Miss Birtie Power went to Anderson yesterday.

The meeting in Providence closed with Wednesday night's preaching service. While there was earnest preaching and praying upon the part of the pastor and others, that good might be done, yet visible results does not warrant the belief that much good was done. For some years protracted meetings in this place have seemed a sort of drag, a campaign year, so politics and preaching don't mix much.

SOW More Grain

If every farmer will sow five acres of oats to the plow, and three acres of wheat to the plow, on ground that is well prepared and well fertilized, he will make enough wheat and oats to do him.

The corn crop is likely to be short in this section as the seasons have not been favorable for making corn. If the war in Europe continues for a long time, there will be a tremendous amount of corn and wheat and oats exported to Europe and this will make corn, wheat and oats high.

September is a good time to sow oats. Prepare the ground carefully and thoroughly before you get to picking cotton, and fertilize it with about 300 pounds to the acre of say 10-1-3 or 10-1-4, your oats will get well rooted before the cold weather comes on and if sown in the drill it is about as sure a crop as you can plant. These oats will come in early next spring and will help out a short corn crop.

Now and then you hear of a farmer sowing oats in August, and we believe the August sowing always makes a good crop.

September is a capital time to sow oats and we believe it will pay you mighty well to sow some this fall.

It always pays to prepare your land well, and to fertilize it well.
